

Isaiah 5 – Positives from Negatives

1:2a – God speaks and must to be listened to.

1:2b – God who commands heaven and earth

1:2c – God is a father who nurtures his children.

1:3 – God can be known.

1:4 – God is Holy.

1:6 – God gives wholeness and soundness.

1:9 - God ensures survival.

1:10 - God gives instruction.

1:11 – God enjoys sincerity of worship.

1:15 – God hears the prayers of the sincere & pure.

1:17a – God loves justice and cares for the poor.

1:17b – God defends the helpless.

1:21 - God values faithfulness.

1:28 – God meets out justice.

2:10a – God is fearful, but we need not hide from.

2:10b – God is splendid and majestic.

2:11 - God will be exalted.

2:12 – The Lord is Almighty.

2:17 – God exalts the humble.

2:22 – God can be trusted.

3:1 – God supports us and supplies our needs.

3:4 – God appoints leaders over us.

3:5 – God is a God of order and harmony.

3:7 - God has remedies.

3:8 – God gives us his presence.

3:13 – God takes his place in court above all peoples.

3:14 – God has cultivates us, his vineyard.

3:16 – God has a high view of women.

3:18 – God sees through peripheries to the heart.

5:1 – God gives his people good things.

5:2a – God clears away for us and watches over us.

5:2b – God enables us to be fruitful.

2:4 – God does everything he can for us.

5:6 – God can command rain.

5:7 – God delights in us.

5:8 – God values spiritual, rather than physical wealth.

5:12 – God is always working.

5:13 – God gives understanding

5:19 – God does things in his own time.

5:20 – God knows good from evil.

5:24 – God has unchangeable laws.

5:25 – God gets angry over evil.

5:26 – God is a God whom all nations obey.

5:27 – God keeps us from getting tired.

5:29 – Lion-God who gives strength to whom he pleases.